

It is my belief that the five word per minute code requirement should be retained for at least the Amateur Extra Class license.